HUNGARY EXTENDS TIME LIMIT OF AMNESTY

A decree of the Council of Ministers provides that the time limit on ammesty provided by law No 9 of 1950 as previously extended by the Council of Ministers shall be extended by additional 6 months. Accordingly, Section 1 of Paragraph 3 of the above law has been modified to read as follows:

"Hungarian citizens who left the country prior to 4 April 1945 because of the war may not be prosecuted for war crimes or crimes against the people, provided such citizens return to Hungary by 4 April 1952."

Section 1 of Paragraph 4 of the same law has been modified to read as follows:

"Individuals who, prior to 25 March 1945, used passports illegally, left the country without permission, or committed other crimes of this nature may not be prosecuted, provided they return to Eungary by 4 April 1952.
